SENATOR JONES OF NEVADA.

His masterly speeches, untiring energy and consummate tact, under great difficulties, in carrying out whatever cause he esponsed to be the right one, at once attracted the attenuon of the civilized world and the was the peer of the ablest on the floor

He brought back to memory the struggles between the giants in the ling news, together with a variety of and better days of the Republic, establishing that he was a man fit to represent men.
Those in California who have per sonally known him for a long series of years are not at all astonished to see him go rapidly to the front in public afford. We, of California have known him as a miner, Sheriff.

State Senator, capitalist, always the same horest, true, diligent, deter mined and futhful man to those he may have represented. He is the kind of a man the people, at this honr, are seeking for to represent them at the national capital.

In this chactic age of political up beavals and the scramble for power tt makes but little difference whether a man may be called Democrat or Rapublican. The people want hon-esty and independence, coupled with the best ability; men free from the control of the monopolists; men not afraid to act freely, justly and wively for all classes. Such a man I believe Senator Jones to be, and it is to be hoped that Nevada, in the coming contest, will re elect him to the United States Senate.

He is to Nevada what Webster was of old to Massachusette, Clay of Ken tucky, Benton to Missouri—able and true to his own State and wise in the councils of the nation

LIFE LONG DEMOGRAT.

THE nomination of C C. Powning for State Senator, by the Republicans of Washes county, is a deserved recognition of the valuable services of s bright, talented, energetic young man There are prospects of a general war with the Indians in Kansas and the peighboring States.

About eight years and in Mr Powning entered the office of which he is now editor and proprietor (the Nevada State Journal) as a printer. He was always energetic an I faithfully performed the duties devolving upon him. The people of Washoe county were not slow in rec ognizing the superior qualities of the young man. They encouraged him the benefit of the community where he had cast his lot Powning was in repressible. He laughed at obstacles which would have cast down a man of less nerve—his enemies became repressible his friends and ceased to annoy him, and now, baying been selected Sens tor by a Convention composed of some of the best citizens and business men of Washoe, he will be elected and prove his devotion to the cause of the people before the close of the next session of the Nevada Legisla

It is not that a man is born in England or America, and has been able to amase millions of money by industry or good fortune and dispensed it very generously to his friends or party, that the public is particularly interested, but when a public man has been elected, he so nobly and faithfully carried out the views and maintained the interests of the State he represented, while at the same time he worked earnestly for the welfare of the Republic.
